PROSPECTUS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATESMAN. THE undersigned propose, on the first day of January aext, at Raleigh, North Carolina, to begin the publication of the North Carolina Statesman, a semi-weekly and weekly paper, devoted to politics, news, and miscellaneous, subjects, and respectfully solicit for it a share of the patronage of the democratic party, their friends, and the invited by many leading persons of the State rights republican party to propagate and defend principles which we have always held, and regard as the only basis of prosperity in our form of government, and inspired with a sincere desire to erve that party and advance its interests, we propose to issue a paper at the seat of the State government. In the field of editorial enterprise, there is ample room for those who are now holding pois ample room for those who are now holding po-sition, as well as for others, who choose to enter into fair competition. The propagation of the principles of our party is a duty at once import-ant, and to us peculiarly agreeable. The attrac-tions of the editorial profession and its honorable toils, together with a desire to extend its influence, has had much weight in the decision which we have made—a profession at once dignified and elevated, where the highest intellectual gifts may and full employment, and the purest patriotism make contribution to the public weal. We are persuaded that a journal, conducted with fairness and discretion—uninfluenced by selfishness and devoted to principle, may secure sufficient patronage, without interfering with the claims or rights of any now prosecuting the same great work. Although mainly deveted to the discussion of such political questions, as they arise, which affect the welfare of North Carolina, whether relating to the federal or State governments, or such local in-terests as may be of importance, it is nevertheless intended to make the Statesman a medium of general intelligence. Accordingly, the state of the markets in the principal cities, to which our com merce goes, shall be fully and accurately reported; nor will the attention of the conductors be less addressed to the subject of internal improvements, as a means indispensable to the development of the mineral and agricultural resources of the State These interests, of primary importance, shall al-ways command their fullest attention. To this they propose to add carefully selected and original literary matter. Boing strictly conservative, they perience, in that progress, which promises the advancement of the interests of North Carolina.

The general objects of the proposed paper being hus clearly indicated. it may not be amiss briefly to state the particular views which are to be susained by it as a political journal. 1st. Our purpose being to publish a paper purely de-mocratic, according to the straightest requirements of that party, we shall advocate strict party organization in its fullest and most comprehensive sense; an organization which originates in the popular will, expressed by the people in their primary as-semblies, and which has been so successfully ineries.

A very large and fine assortment of Stationery, ust received and for sale at low prices by GRAY & BALLANTYNE, June 7—3t.

Seventh street.

Sentimes, and which has been so successining introduced among the democracy of many of the party are, in fact, those who indicate its decisions, and, being all brought into action, express their will imperatively; thus, by open and fair dealing, commanding respect and obedience; an organiza-tion of the people, and not of intriguers; restoring power to those who, by sufferance, have tolerate power to those who, by sufferance, have tolerated its temporary usurpation.

2d. The democratic party shall always find in us advocates of their right to select their standard bearers, and to command acquiescence in decisions made by conventions fairly elected in their primary meetings. Standing upon the good sid State rights platform of '98, we shall oppose government corporations created by Congress for the purpose of internal improvement, the regulation of finance. of internal improvement, the regulation of finance, or any other measure inconsistent with the rights of the States.

3d. Believing that the platform adopted by the late Baltimore convention contains the democratic creed, they expect cordially to sustain the present administration, trusting that the policy adopted by those who compose it will be regulated by the cardinal doctrines of the American democracy.

4th. They will advocate all such measures of internal improvement as promise by judicious prose-cution to promote the interests of the people and diffuse the benefits of a system already enjoyed by ortions of the State.

5th. The disposition of the public lands being a question of the most absorbing interest, we believe it should be at once met and settled. The theve it should be at once met and settled. The unjust and unequal legislation of Congress, in reliation to those lands, and the large and frequent appropriations made to the new States, indicate a final departure from the old and wise policy of appropriating the proceeds of their sales to the payment of the public debt, and the expenses of the government. It has for some time ceased to be atther a subject of home transfer and the second to be either a subject of hope or expectation that there will ever be a return to a policy which had so much to recommend it. Believing that this sys-tem of squandering and prodigality is not only to continue but to grow worse, we shall prefest against it, and assert the right of the old States to their equitatle share of the lands which remain. The power 'to dispose of the public lands being explicitly declared in the Constitution, the exerexplicitly declared in the Constitution, the exercise of that power is a question of policy, both as to the time and t'e mode." Believing, as we do, that it has become the settled policy of Congress to squander the public lands, we adopt the patriotic language of Mr. Dobbin, and say that "all of North Carolina's sons, both whigs and democrats, should protest, and demand North Carolina's share of the public donain."

DR. MORSE'S
A Phenomenon in Medicine.—Reaith Restored and Life Lengthened, by Dr. Morse's Invigorating Elixir or Cordial.

A T first the properties attributed to Professor deemed fabulous. The public often deceived could not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer. But facts, undeniable facts, attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts. Incredulity is overthrown by a mass of testimony which is perfectly irresistible.

The Elixir remedies in all cases the deplorable evils arising from a misuse of the various organs which make up the wonderful machine called man. It restores to full vigor every delicate func tion connected with that mysterious compound agency of mutter and mind, necessary to the re-production of human life. To persons of feeble muscular frame, or descient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicat-ing that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the aling wife, the listless, enervated youth, the over-worn man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis, it will prove a complete and infailing safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trilled with their constitutions, that they think the inselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these dethe reach of medicine. Let not even these de spair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists without reference to causes, and will not only re move the disorder itself, but REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION

The derangements of the system, leading to nervous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease itself, are so numerous that it would a column to enumerate the maladies for which this preparation is a specific. A few, however may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia tic-doloureux headache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spinal affections, muscular debility, tremors, flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbness, torpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to ve, faintness after exercise, broken sleep, and terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place terrifying dreams, mability to remain in one place or position, weaking of the procreative organs, sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, sinking at the stomach, female irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriage-emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenges that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the result of medicine. the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladies wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralyzation of the nerves of motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind, also, that, for every kind of nervous disease the Elixir Cordial is the only reliable preparation

CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES. No language can convey an adequate idea of which it occasions in the diseased, debilitated, and shattered nervous system, whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sick-ness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once braced, revivified, and built up. The mental and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish together under its influence. Nor is the effect temporary; on the contrary, the relief is permanent, for the cordial properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself, and restore it to its normal condition. Well may the preparation be have no existence.

A STIMULANT THAT ENTAILS NO RE ACTION.
Its force is never expanded, as is the case with opium, alcoholic preparations, and all other excitants. The effect of these is brief, and it may well be said of him who takes them: "the last state of that man is worse than the first." But the Elixir is an exhilarant without a single drawback-safe in its

INVIGORATING CORDIAL,

PURELY Vegetable in its composition. This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and Rrits, which have been found after years of experience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence, whilst it is presented to the public as an efficacious remedy, it is also known to be of that character on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of impotency, Homorrhages, Disordered Sterility, Menstruation, or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for females after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, this cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects; or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physical

To Females.—Henry's In igorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It assists nature to brace the whole system, check ex cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness. Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom
